

Release Date: August 25, 2022

Houston Mayor Sylvester Turner Proclaims Wednesday, August 24, 2022
Yvonne Cobb Day

HOUSTON, TX. August 25, 2022 - Our notable Mayor Sylvester Turner announced August 24, 2022, Yvonne Cobb Day in the city of Houston, Texas. This monumental day stands as a historical marker to honor Yvonne's excellence of achievements within our greater community of Houston in serving & empowering youth through outstanding academic achievements, financial literacy, and activism.

"Ms. Cobb's positive and embracive community impact principal through food and toy drives, community financial outreach programs, athletic and academic forums she provides to unserved communities speaks volumes of volumes of her purpose-driven life," says Mayor Turner.

Yvonne is a finance professional with over 20 years of experience in the accounting industry respectfully. Ms. Cobb is a master specialist/consultant within her financial network who gives a wealth of financial knowledge to business start-ups and everyday working professionals worldwide.

Ms. Cobb began her career by working as an accountant across various fields/industries, not limited to just finance, additionally transportation and film. Eventually, she expanded the horizon to become President of TakeAway Tax, where she currently works. Yvonne promoted major advocacy and educational efforts in Houston and surrounding cities as growing out a boutique brand with core values of "family in mind platform".

With that Ms Cobb stands behind her Vision -

"It is my goal to inspire our youth to have strength, endurance, energy, and determination to become effective citizens in their community," Yvonne explains. "I empower them to achieve their full academic and economic potential.

"Yvonne has extended her financial expertise to the surrounding communities within Houston and throughout the state of Texas, where she leads several philanthropic efforts to educate and uplift underserved communities and struggling businesses within the minority sector. Her leadership has been felt across the city and recognized tremendously. Ms Cobb additionally offers her advisory to major community leaders, corporations, and advisors.

Yvonne's commitment to Houston is truly undeniable.

"We acknowledge Yvonne Cobb for being a positive representation upon other leading minority women throughout the world. The city of Houston congratulates and commends Ms. Cobb on her hard work and service," declares Honorable Mayor Turner.

Yvonne is truly a remarkable philanthropist in economics of our greater Houston community. While the city celebrated her work on August 24th 2022, her accomplishments and leadership will surely be lauded by Houstonians for years to come.

In correspondence and more information of Ms Yvonne Cobb and her proclaimed Day, please proceed by visiting her website at : www.ycobb.com or contact her publicist for live and in person interviews.

Media Contact:

Jordyn Dean, Publicist
jordyn@taylordeanmedia.com
(310) 948-6776